

Occasional Temperament Conference
 October 28-31, 2004
 The University of Georgia

Conference Program*

Thursday, October 28 ( Student Learning Center-The University of Georgia )
7:30-8:00 am	Scenic tour of Athens Meet in the Holiday Inn lobby and walk to the conference site.	Led by Roy Martin
8:00-9:00 am	Registration and Refreshments
9:00-9:30 am	Welcome and Conference Overview	Led by Charles Halverson and Roy Martin
Presentation Block I: Structure of Child Temperament and Personality
9:30-10:00 am	Temperament and the development of personality	Mary Rothbart
10:00-10:30 am	Lingering questions in the search for personality structure in childhood	Rebecca Shiner
10:30-11:00 am	Behavioral inhibition and activation and personality typology	Gennadij Knyazev
11:00 am-Noon	Poster sessions -Temperament and personality in young adulthood: Relations between the ATQ and BFI in self and peer reports -A self-report measure of temperament in middle childhood -A meta-analytic investigation of extraversion and intelligence: An examination of age and sex as moderator variables	-Brad Sheese  -Jennifer Simonds  -Mark B. Wolf
Noon-2:00 pm	Break for lunch Lunch is on your own. There are several eating establishments in the Tate Student Center (adjacent to the conference site) and in the downtown area.
2:00-2:30 pm	Temperament and personality: A developmental hierarchical integration	Charles Halverson
2:30-3:00 pm	Observed and desirable personality characteristics of adolescents: Maternal perceptions	Elias Besevegis
3:00-3:30 pm	A five-factor model in children: A within-child approach	James Deal
3:30-4:00 pm	Personality types and subtypes and life-course developmental outcome: The case of specific genetic	C.F.M. van Lieshout

	syndromes
4:00-4:30 pm	Temperament and behavior problems: Toward a common typology	Berit Hagekull
4:30-5:00 pm	Discussion of presentations	Led by Charles Halverson
6:00-8:00 pm	Dinner at Peking Restaurant (optional) Meet in the Holiday Inn lobby to travel to a local Chinese restaurant for a dutch-treat dinner. Transportation provided.

Friday, October 29 ( Student Learning Center-The University of Georgia )
8:00-9:00 am	Registration and Refreshments
Presentation Block I (continued)
9:00-9:30 am	Extending an adult measure of personality to adolescents	Spencer Baker
Presentation Block II: Biological Foundations of Child Temperament and Personality
9:30-10:00 am	Young children with exuberant temperament: Risk takers or just plain happy?	Nathan Fox
9:30-10:30 am	Break-out session for individuals interested in the training of temperament counselors	James Cameron
10:00-10:30 am	Season of birth and behavioral inhibition: Etiological links to regularly occurring environmental perturbations of fetal development	Roy Martin and Colby Butzon
10:30-11:00 am	Discussion of presentations	Led by Nathan Fox
11:00 am-1:30 pm	Break for lunch Lunch is on your own. There are several eating establishments in the Tate Student Center (adjacent to the conference site) and in the downtown area.
Presentation Block III: Predictions of Important Developmental Outcomes from Early Temperament and Personality
1:30-2:00 pm	Specific patterns of infant reactivity and regulation, together with maternal behavior, predict later behavior	Susan Crockenberg
2:00-2:30 pm	Temperament, goodness of fit, and implications for early relationship formation	Ronald Seifer
2:30-3:00 pm	Early child personality, home environment, and adjustment in	Maja Zupanicic

	preschool: A follow-up study from a multi-informant perspective
3:00-3:30 pm	The developmental origins of agreeableness: An update	William Graziano
3:30-4:00 pm	Effortful control and young children's regulation of emotion	Jessica Kieras
4:00-4:30 pm	Parent and child personality traits and children's externalizing problem behavior from age 4 to 9 years: A cohort-sequential latent growth curve analysis	Peter Prinzie
4:30-5:00 pm	Discussion of presentations	Led by Roy Martin
6:00-8:00 pm	Conference dinner at The Georgian Hotel (located in downtown Athens) Dinner is included with conference registration fee.

Saturday, October 30 ( South PJ Auditorium-The University of Georgia )
8:00-8:30 am	Registration and Refreshments
Presentation Block III (continued)
8:30-9:00 am	Temperament in childhood: Testing measurement convergence, stability, and context effects	Mirjana Majdandzic
9:00-9:30 am	Essential agenda for temperament research: Renewal of attention to practical issues	William Carey and Sean McDevitt
9:30-10:00 am	Parenting behavior as a mediator between temperament and externalizing behavior problems in early childhood	Marja Paulussen-Hoogeboom
10:00-10:30 am	Behavioral inhibition as a temperamental predictor of internalizing and externalizing problems	Gunilla Bohlin
10:30-11:00 am	Temperament, personality, and psychopathology: A look at behavioral adjustment in clinical vs. non clinical cases	Sean McDevitt and William Carey
11:00-11:30 am	Discussion of presentations
11:30 am-1:30 pm	Break for lunch Lunch is on your own. There are several eating establishments in the Tate Student Center (adjacent to the conference site) and in the downtown area.
1:30-2:00 pm	An evaluation of the effects of	Sandra McClowry

	INSIGHTS on the behavior of inner city primary school children
2:00-2:30 pm	The influence of temperament and self-concept on the development of disruptive behavior in school aged children	Pamela Galehouse
2:30-3:00 pm	The relationship between attention deficit hyperactivity disorder and child temperament	Marie Foley
3:00-3:30 pm	Temperament during adolescence: Educational implications	Diana Guerin
3:30-4:00 pm	Person-environment interaction: Personality, friendships and psychosocial adjustment in adolescence	Berna G_ro_lu
4:00-4:30 pm	Personality and family life style as predictors of child adjustment	Helena Slobodskaya
4:30-5:00 pm	Discussion of presentations
6:00-8:00 pm	Reception for Charles Halverson in honor of his retirement from The University of Georgia Complex Carbohydrate Complex at The University of Georgia

*Please note: For brevity, we've listed only the senior authors on most papers. Presentations are to be no longer than 20 minutes. The registration fee includes incidental conference costs, refreshments during breaks, and the conference dinner on Friday evening. Conference attendees will be responsible for all other costs.